INTRODUCTION

The Communications, Cyber & AI Summit brings together senior government officials, regulators, business leaders, technology experts and institutional stakeholders to discuss the future of electronic communications, cybersecurity and artificial intelligence in Cyprus and across Europe.

The Summit will address key European and national policy and regulatory developments, including NIS2, the AI Act, the Cyber Resilience Act, the Cybersecurity Act and emerging developments in digital networks and critical infrastructure resilience.

With an estimated 300 participants, the two-day Summit provides sponsors with a unique opportunity to showcase expertise, demonstrate innovative solutions and engage directly with decision-makers responsible for digital transformation, cybersecurity, compliance, risk management and technology investment.

Attendees will include CEOs, Managing Directors, CISOs, CIOs, CTOs, risk and compliance executives, Data Protection Officers, technology professionals, regulators and representatives from public authorities, critical infrastructure operators and European institutions.

Participants will be drawn from the telecommunications, technology, financial services, energy, professional services and wider business sectors.

Why to participate as a sponsor

The sponsorship packages combine brand visibility, promotional space, reserved seating and opportunities for direct networking.

PLATINUM SPONSOR €15,000 ONE EXCLUSIVE OPPORTUNITY

COMMUNICATION & MARKETING

Total Media & Promotional Exposure Value: €20,000

The Communications, Cyber & AI Summit will benefit from an extensive, integrated promotional campaign valued at €20,000, leveraging the full strength of IMH's leading media platforms to ensure maximum visibility, awareness and engagement across the Cyprus business community.
The campaign will include:

- Extensive Media Coverage: Promotion across IMH's media network, including IN Business News, Cyprus Business News (CBN), IN Business Magazine, GOLD Magazine, REPORTER Portal and Super FM Radio.
- Targeted Email Marketing Campaigns: Dedicated promotional campaigns through the IN Business Daily Newsletter and CBN Newsletter, reaching a database of more than 60,000 business executives and professionals, supported by follow-up and reminder campaigns.
- Digital Advertising & Social Media: Strategic placement of promotional banners across IMH's digital platforms, complemented by targeted social media campaigns.
- Editorial & PR Coverage: Press releases, articles and dedicated editorial coverage before and after the Summit across IMH's media channels.
- IN Business TV Interviews: Dedicated interviews with the Summit organisers, as well as representatives of Platinum and Gold Sponsors, highlighting their expertise, participation and contribution to the Summit.
- Live Event Coverage: Live coverage of the Summit throughout the event days across IMH's digital media platforms, featuring key moments, speaker highlights and event updates.
- Event Highlights Video: Production of a professionally edited, approximately three-minute highlights video capturing the Summit's key moments, atmosphere and main discussions, including selected interviews with participating sponsors.
- Photography & Post-Event Coverage: Professional event photography and post-event editorial coverage, extending the Summit's visibility beyond the event itself.

Sponsor visibility will reflect the selected sponsorship tier. The campaign promotes the Summit as a whole and does not guarantee individual sponsor interviews, editorial mentions or specific audience results.
